

assessment and rate made by the assessor of such hundred of all the property therein, and the names of the persons whose property shall be assessed in such hundred, and on application shall, without any fee or reward, give in writing a copy of such assessment and rate; and if it shall appear to any collector, that any person shall reside in any other hundred of his county than that in which his property shall be assessed and rated, it is hereby declared to be the duty of such collector to enter such assessment and rate under the hundred where such person shall reside, and to give notice to such person to be assessed, by attending either in person or by deputy, in the hundred as aforesaid in which such person shall reside; and if it shall appear to any collector, that any person, whose property shall be assessed and rated in his county, shall not reside therein, it is hereby declared to be the duty of such collector to make diligent enquiry where such person shall live, and he shall, if known, transmit to the collector of the county where such person shall reside, a copy of the assessment and rate made on the property of such person in his county, and such collector, on receipt thereof, shall enter the same under the hundred where such person shall reside, and shall attend in such hundred therewith, and give notice thereof as aforesaid, and if required, a copy thereof as aforesaid,

And be it enacted, That all and every person or persons within this state, being indebted, at the time he, she, or they shall be assessed as aforesaid, by judgment, mortgage, bond, bill, or by any other ways and means on which an annual interest shall accrue and become due to the creditor, in any sum of money, tobacco, or other commodity, their heirs, executors, or administrators, shall, for the better enabling him, her, or them, to pay and bear the rate